May 6, 2013 - Insects and Bugs

Our Weekly Studies

Reading: Continuing with using strategies when decoding. Students are also becoming very good at tracking their own reading.

Math: I decided to start our measurement unit early last week (just for a change of pace), we will finish up with that and continue with addition and subtraction. We have also been working on the Summative math assessment...and all the students are doing awesome!

Writing: We will finish a creative story about a specific wild animal and tell about its habitat and Science: It's getting buggy in here! This week we will explore and observe Pill bugs and Sow bugs.

Social Studies:
